

AutumnFest

A celebration of Fall with plants for sale, free crafts, food and more!

Bring the family and celebrate with us!

TASTE: Herbs baked in cookies, mixed in dips, infused in teas and other treats.

VISIT: Arlington's oldest house, offering an herbal craft project, a colonial treat and more.
Ball-Sellers House, two doors from Glencarlyn Library Garden at 5620 Third Street.

BUY: Native plants from Hill House Nursery; Pumpkins, potpourri and blooming plants from Country Gardens; Hand-crafted jewelry; Recycled reusable bags; Garden pots as art; New "Perfect Partners" T-shirts and more.

MAKE: Sachets and take the scents of AutumnFest home.

LEARN: From the experts. Mini-workshops include:

- 11 a.m. - Grow Your Own Herbal Tea: Soothing and tasty libations.
- Noon - Succulents for Small Spaces: Hop on board with this hot trend.
- 1 p.m. - Container Gardening Made Easy: Food and beauty at your fingertips.
- All Day — Take away art from our face painters; Enjoy critters with a Naturalist; Consult with Tree Stewards and Master Gardeners on questions.
